

Local change

1. The process caller defines a target audience.
2. Defining the direction of the process by the core team.
3. Distributing an invitation to a steering team.
4. Choosing a location at a steering committee meeting – touches people (spatial and mental). Central and meaningful to the community.
5. Preparing the simulation of the idea of intervention – expresses the local story.
6. Principles for selecting an idea – good, positive. Expresses local values and knowledge.
Call trigger / action.
7. Confirm imaging at an additional session of the steering team.

place

- * The core team – manager, supervisor, designer – is responsible for 1–3.
- * Steering team – manager, moderator, designer, representatives of partners investing in the process and representatives of the community. Responsible for 3–6.

Purpose

1. Invitation to the process – variety is welcome.
2. Prototyping – Prototype – Local event to meet and invite community.
3. Training – the art of hosting (participatory leadership), making a place, worldcafe.
4. Building a local knowledge map of the place.
5. Collect insights.
6. Community sample interviews.

Question

Holding the process

1. Exposure event
2. Reflection on the process.
3. Move it on: maintenance staff, learning kits, instructional sessions of teams participating in additional population groups.

Celebration

