

Ekaterine Shaverdashvili: Professor of Educational Sciences at Ilia State University, Georgia; PhD in Philosophy; Research fields: General didactics of foreign languages; Language policy; Values education; Historical perspective of language teaching; CLIL teaching methodology; Author of two monographs and about 30 articles, second and foreign language teaching materials (author and editor); Foreign language teachers preparation programs; In-service training modules and learning courses; Founder of German-language scientific and practical journal “MfG”, in collaboration with Goethe-Institut and German language teachers association; Participation in research studies at Saarland, Cassel, Jena, Berlin, Bielefeld and Leipzig Universities – problems of foreign language teaching in Georgia and Post Soviet Union countries; Participation (papers presented) in several international conferences and congresses on foreign language didactics; Curriculum expert at the Ministry of Education and Sciences of Georgia. Participates in education policy implementation in Georgia.

Her current project is ‘Curriculum Reform for Promoting Civic Education and Democratic Principles in Israel and in Georgia (CURE), ERASMUS+ project, Capacity Building in the Field of Higher Education; 2009-2013 – Head of the joint international project with the Institute of German Studies at Jena University, Germanistische Institutspartnerschaft/DAAD from Georgian side; 2016 and 2017: ERASMUS+ teaching mobility of academic staff; Mobility at Jena University, Germany; Head of DLL (Learning how to teach German) in Georgia – international program of teachers professional development, in collaboration with Goethe-Institut and Friedrich Schiller University Jena.