

Dr. Izabella Petriashvili, Associate Professor, Ivane Javakhishvili Tbilisi State University (TSU), Institutional Manager for CURE

Doctor of Philological Sciences, Associate Professor at the Faculty of Psychology and Education Sciences, Tbilisi State University; Head of the MA Program in EFL Teacher Education; Scientific Supervisor of MA and PhD Students' theses; Member of the Faculty Board; Georgian Team Coordinator of TEMPUS IV fifth call project DOIT (2012-2015), ERASMUS+ CBHE projects CURE (2016-2019) & ASSET (2017-2020); Fulbright Visiting Scholar at NEIU, Chicago, IL (2012); Visiting professor at School of Education, Polytechnical Institute of Viana Do Castelo, Portugal by ERASMUS MUNDUS staff mobility program (2012) and ERASMUS+ Staff Mobility Grant to the University of Iceland (2017); Expert at National Curriculum Centre, Ministry of Education and Science of Georgia; Teacher Trainer at English Teachers' Association of Georgia and British Council Georgia; participated in/organized national and international scientific conferences, workshops and projects; is the author of a monograph, co-author of 2 Teachers' Guides for Primary & Secondary School Teachers & Reader in Intercultural Education-Pedagogical Approaches, author of over 20 publications on various linguistic and pedagogical issues in Georgian and International scientific journals.

Within the CURE Project, she participates in developing an online course: Global Challenges in the 21st Century in Promoting Active Citizenship and Civic Education. Participated in SMS in PLUS, Austria and CCCU, UK. Led the Faculty training workshops at TSU on: "Supporting Civic Education through VaKE", "Auto/biographical and Narrative Enquiry as Teaching and Research Method".